The Allstate Benefits Self-Funded Program provides tools for employers owning small to mid-sized businesses to establish a self-funded health benefit plan for their employees. The benefit plan is established by the employer and is not an insurance product. For employers in the Allstate Benefits Self-Funded Program, stop-loss insurance is underwritten by: Integon National Insurance Company in CT, NY and VT; Integon Indemnity Corporation in FL; and National Health Insurance Company in all other states where offered.

Vori Health is a nationwide medical provider offering a better approach to back, knee, hip, shoulder and other joint pain through physician-led care teams, including coaching and physical therapy. As a contracted partner, Vori Health accepts coverage for members who are enrolled in select products in the Allstate Benefits Self-Funded Employer Program.
